BRT Solutions Awarded Certified Training Center Status

Toronto, Ontario, July 25, 2007 – BRT Solution's training facility in Toronto Ontario was awarded Certified Training Center status by PTC this week in recognition of the commitment to offer qualified and certified training to the Toronto area.

This new status certifies that BRT Solutions' training facilities meet and exceed PTC's specified guidelines for creating a proper environment that is conducive to learning. It also confirms that all courses offered at BRT Solutions are being taught and lead by certified instructors who have completed their certification for each course offered.

"This new certification not only confirms our commitment to quality education services, but reassures our clients that we are providing them with great training, equipment and a dedicated learning environment for their employees," confirmed Talya Peimer, Training Director for BRT Solutions.

BRT Solutions' latest training schedules for Toronto and other training facilities are currently online. For more information about the Certified Training Center contact Alessandro Bertolucci, or visit: <http://www.brt-solutions.com/education-courses.htm> for a list of offered classes.
